Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Part IV Your Activities

1 Describe completely and in detail your past, present, and planned activities. Do not refer to or repeat the purposes in your organizing document. For each past, present, or planned activity, include information that answers the following questions:

- a. What is the activity?
- b. Who conducts the activity?
- c. Where is the activity conducted?
- d. What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
- e. How is the activity funded (for example, donations, fees, etc.) and what percentage of your overall expenses is allocated to this activity?
- f. How does the activity further your exempt purposes?

Our mission at Horns With Heart (the Corporation) is to connect volunteers, contractors, donors, and student-athletes with charitable organizations that are impactful in their lives or the lives of their loved ones, not just locally, but across the state of Texas and nationally, so that each volunteer, contractor, donor, and student-athlete can contribute to the causes they care most about. Additionally, we will invest directly into tax-exempt partner organizations to stimulate awareness of those organizations and missions and provide other support services to enterprises that generally do not have access to a broad network of volunteers, spokespersons, and/or donors. The Corporation shall initiate close working relationships with partner organizations and may invest in the development of relationships between the clients, contractors, contributors, or otherwise of the Corporation and partner organizations that don't otherwise have sufficient funding to promote and/or advocate for themselves.

As part of our mission, the Corporation will invest in educational services to those involved, including, but not limited to, mental health initiatives and personal and economic empowerment. The Corporation will additionally provide the following services for free or at reduced cost: financial planning, tax assistance, legal advice, and general business development services.

Examples of activities and who they are conducted by:

While we have not yet entered into any contracts, there are a number of activities we are currently discussing with other tax-exempt organizations. Overall, student-athletes, contractors, and volunteers will be connected with a number of tax-exempt organizations to contribute their time and efforts towards either physically benefitting such organizations, sponsoring/hosting events, and providing marketing services based on their NIL. Examples of activities we are currently in discussions to organize:

- Host a sports camp for local youth leagues at no cost to the leagues.
- Build a house for Habitat For Humanity or similar organizations.
- Engage in marketing campaigns for the benefit of organizations supporting the victims of domestic violence and organizations operating to assist with homelessness, drug addiction, and mental health.
- Visit local children's hospitals

The corporation itself will contribute directly to other tax-exempt organizations to assist such organizations in bringing awareness to their missions through marketing, social media engagement, and an expanded donor base. The Corporation will also help identify others that they can partner with and provide legal and financial services to assist them in these endeavors.

Location of activities:

As we are based in Austin, Texas, and focused on the students at The University of Texas, the majority of activities will be conducted in Austin or other locations in Texas. However, activities are likely to be conducted in the home states of those individuals who seek to participate in the program.

Time-allocation:

100% of a student-athlete/contractors time operating on behalf of the Corporation or other tax-exempt organizations will be for the benefit of such tax-exempt organizations they choose to partner with.

Funding:

We project that 95%+ of all funding will go directly towards charitable purposes (our current estimates are as follows):

- 501(c)3 organizations and the student-athlete's representing them will receive 95% of all funding and benefits acquired by the Corporation
- Infrastructure costs will account for 3% of the funding acquired by the Corporation
- Administrative costs will account for 2% of the funding acquired by the Corporation

Furtherance:

The directors of our company are contributing their time and efforts pro bono, and they will not receive any compensation. Under the newly enacted federal and state laws regarding the use of a student-athlete's name, image, and likeness (NIL), there has been a groundswell of activity across the nation. We saw this and recognized that these initiatives were almost exclusively for self-serving reasons. We want to change that. While these student-athletes can essentially receive unlimited funds with little or no conditions attached, we want to turn this into a positive outcome for everyone involved. As such, our broad vision is to supplement other tax-exempt organizations through the use of eligible student-athletes' NIL. Not only will the student-athletes and organizations be receiving value that they may not have otherwise had access to, they will now be working in conjunction with a limitless number of important causes in their communities. We want to see these student-athletes put their time and efforts towards improving their lives, and the lives of those around them, and we will provide them with the means to do so, including but not limited to, free mental health services, financial planning advice, tax services, and business development s

We forecast 95% of all contributions received will be paid out to and/or for the benefit of other tax-exempt organizations. We have not entered in to any agreements yet with a specific organization so none can be listed here at this time. We have had discussions with certain student-athletes and the University of Texas at Austin, but the specific individuals/organizations that will receive funding is not yet confirmed. We anticipate 3% of all funding received will be used for infrastructure costs, and 2% will be used for general administrative expenses. The Directors of the Corporation will not receive compensation for there time and efforts.

Part VII Foundation Classification

Part VII is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity classification is a more favorable tax status than private foundation classification. If you are a private foundation, this part will further determine whether you are a private operating foundation.

1 Select the foundation classification you are requesting from the list below.

- You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) as an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public.
- You are described in 509(a)(2) as an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions).
- You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i) as a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete Schedule A.
- You are described in 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) as a school. Complete Schedule B.

- You are described in 509(a)(3) as an organization supporting either one or more organizations described in 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) or a publicly supported section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organization. Complete Schedule D.
- You are described in 509(a)(4) as an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety.
- You are a publicly supported organization and would like the IRS to decide your correct classification.
- You are a private foundation.

State specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document (Page/Article/Paragraph) or state that you rely on state law.

1b Do you or will you provide scholarships, fellowships, educational loans, or other educational grants to individuals, including grants for travel, study, or other similar purposes? Yes No
If "Yes," complete Schedule H - Section II.

1c Are you a private operating foundation? Yes No
